1. General Provisions

This document is a Mir System Standard that regulates the principles of application of interchange fees (IF) on the Participants' financial Transactions in Mir Payment System and sets forth the fee rates and conditions for their charging.

The Clearing system IF calculation procedure shall be provided in a separate document entitled "NSPK Operations and Payment Clearing Centre. Interchange Fees".

The IF rates set forth in this document shall be applied on the Participants' Transactions unless Participants agree on different rates by concluding a separate agreement on changing the IF and notifying the Operator in the format stipulated by the "Application and Notification Forms" Standard.

The Mir Operator shall have the right to make amendments and additions to the effective IF rates at its sole discretion by notifying the Participants in the manner and within the time limits provided in the Rules for changes to the System Standards.

The IF rates shall be listed in the Russian Federation currency as a fixed amount or percent of a Transaction Amount.

2. Interchange Fees

Fees

Fees shall be credited to and/or debited from a Participant’s account in favour of another Participant in rubles (depending on the transaction types listed in Table 2.1).

Payment frequency

The fee amount is credited/debited on a daily basis on the Settlement Centre’s working days.

Payment procedure

A Participant’s order to pay the Interchange Reimbursement Fees (IF) shall be prepared by the Payment Clearing Centre on behalf of the Participant and included in the Participant’s Net position.

Information on the IF amount shall be included in the Reports prepared by the Payment Clearing Centre and sent to the Participant.

The IFs shall not be subject to VAT.
